

Dr. Mary "MJ" McConner, CDE

Global Keynote Speaker | Thought Leader | Award-Winning Consultant | Educator

ABOUT ME

Dr. Mary "MJ" McConner is a culture transformation and leadership development expert with over fifteen years of experience in workplace belonging, inclusive engagement, and international education. With a robust professional background that includes prior experience in C-Suite leadership roles, Dr. McConner now uses her expertise as a consultant, coach, and facilitator to support organizations globally.

Experiencing the workforce as a Black dyslexic professional and member of the Hard of Hearing community has given her a firsthand understanding of how crucial it is to prioritize accessibility and inclusion within organizational systems, cultures, and practices. She has dedicated much of her professional career to understanding the evolving challenges impacting different organizational cultures and ensuring leaders and teams are equipped to foster inclusive cultures and achieve sustainable success.
